On October 4, 1882, Mr Ashby entered the shops of the Virginia Central Railroad, as master painter. The shop employes organized a battailon, commanded by W. T. Whitcomb and James Netherland, and aided the Conferieracy in every possible way, dispatching troops and bringing back the wounded. The battailon formed part of Colonel Thomas Evans's regiment of local forces, to repel invasion.

THE FACTS

There is not a yard or BITULITHIC pavement in Richmond of any pavement similiar to it.

BITULITHIC costs less than Asphalt Block. BITULITHIC streets eleven years old are in excellent condition to-day, having cost nothing for maintenance and needed no repairs.

No plant is required to take care of cuts or repairs in BITULITHIC pavements. Such cuts and repairs can be quickly and cheaply made, original material replaced and the patch cannot be detected.

Over twenty-three million (23,000,000) square yards, or thirteen hundred (1,300) miles of BITULITHIC pavements laid in eleven years in two hundred and fifty (250) cities.

The bid of the Cranford Paving Company of Washington for Improved Sheet Asphalt is not same as BITULITHIC specifications, as claimed.

The following extract from News Leader, July 17, 1912, states:

"Number of citizens are entirely ignorant of value of BITULITHIC."
